Ways 1 to 4 of 7

7 ways Claude can help finance teams close that gap

1 Consistency check

"Compare these five papers. Where do the same figures or terms appear differently?"

2 Plain-language rewrite

"Rewrite this paper for non-finance board members. Keep every number, remove the jargon."

3 Executive summary

"Write a 5-bullet summary per paper. Lead with the decision required."

4 Anticipated questions

"List the ten questions board members are most likely to ask, by paper."

Ways 5 to 7 of 7

And the rest

5

Minutes draft

"Turn these meeting notes into draft minutes: decisions, actions, owners, dates."

6

Action tracker

"Extract every action from the last three sets of minutes and show which are still open."

7

Cover note

"Draft a one-page note to the chair explaining what's new in this pack and what needs attention."

Before you start

Two rules

Board material is confidential, so only an approved enterprise setup will do. And the company secretary or CFO signs off every word.
